Staff Report

DATE: August 8, 2016
TO: Local Agency Formation Commission
FROM: Elliot Mulberg, Executive Officer
SUBJECT: CALAFCO Conference and CALAFCO Board Nominations

RECOMMENDATION: That the Commission

- 1) Identify those interested in attending the conference;
- 2) Select the voting delegate for Solano LAFCO;
- 3) Nominate a county member interested in serving on the CALAFCO Board.

DISCUSSION:

This year CALAFCO will hold its annual conference on October 26-28 in Santa Barbara. The conference will have many interesting and informative sessions on issues facing LAFCOs. In addition it provides an opportunity for networking with other LAFCO commissioners and LAFCO professionals. In the past as many as four commissioners have attended. The FY16/17 budget allows for two commissioners and staff to attend this year's conference.

Besides the sessions and the mobile workshop, the conference is where each regional caucus elects or re-elects directors to the CALAFCO board. There are four regions in the state and Solano County is in the Coastal Region. Each region has four directors, one each from county, city, special district, and public members.

The Coastal region has two seats that are up for election, the county member and the special district member. Since CALAFCO directors must be commissioners or alternate commissioners, Solano LAFCO can only nominate one of its county supervisors, should they be interested, because we have no special district representation. If so, the nomination form must be completed and signed by the Chair. Staff will assist with the submittal in that we also need to submit the Candidate's Resume form and a letter of support or a resolution supporting our candidates.

Since nominations are due September 26, this will be the only meeting where Solano LAFCO will have an opportunity to nominate members to the CALAFCO Board. It would be advantageous to submit the application by the deadline since it will be included in the recruitment committee's report which is circulated at the conference.

During the election only the votes of the voting delegates count. The name of the voting delegate must also be submitted in by September 26 in advance of the conference. Like nominations this is our last meeting before the deadline to choose a voting delegate.

Should there be no interest in attending the conference. There are a couple of options. The Commission could appoint a LAFCO staff member as the voting delegate. Other LAFCOs have done so in the past.

Alternatively Solano LAFCO could request an absentee ballot if no commissioners are able to attend and we don't have a voting delegate. However since our meeting is after the deadline for receiving absentee ballots the voting delegate would also need to complete the absentee ballot. That way Solano LAFCO can participate in the election.

Staff Recommendation: 1) Identify those interested in attending the conference; 2) Appoint a voting delegate; 3) Nominate a county member for a seat on the CALAFCO Board of Directors.
